ROHS DECLARATION

Hereby PATRINI GIACOMO srl guarantees that the supplied parts are fully in compliance with RoHS directive (2011/65/EU) and further amendments.

Regarding the presence of substances listed in annex II of directive 2011/65/EU, we state that:

- No new substance is generated by PATRINI's processes;
- According to information received by our suppliers, the substances listed (in a concentration higher than the restricted threshold stated in appendix II) are not used or added with intent.
- The sole exception to restricted threshold is related to "Lead (Pb) as an alloying element in steel for machining purposes and in galvanised steel containing up to 0,35 % lead by weight" (application exempted from the restriction in Article 4, point 6a of annex III).
- Nevertheless, the absence has not been tested.
- Even if the above mentioned substances are not added with intent, this does not exclude point particle presence due to impurities inside parts supplied by third parties and used during the production process.
- What written is valid for the substances listed in the directive and its amendments up to this day.
